

A Secure Harbour

GCT Canada, along with U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) and Port Metro Vancouver, is dedicated to protecting both your cargo and the harbour. All loaded imports and exports are kept in highly secured, monitored areas with cargo details archived to keep your goods safe. Controlled access and vigilant 24-hour surveillance offer our customers an unparalleled level of accountability and regulatory compliance.

Report suspicious activity.

- No response to verbal interaction.
- Walking slowly and deliberately towards a potential target.
- Inappropriate attire or excessive clothing that may be concealing something.
- Nervousness or “doomsday” talk.
- Agitation or rage.
- Vehicles left parked or standing for long periods near facility perimeters.
- Unescorted persons taking photos of the facility.
- Unfamiliar persons asking excessive questions.
- Persons who cannot verify their identity with a photo ID upon request.